NE WA Fair Work Day

A work day at the fair is set for July 28 from 9 a.m. to whenever. There are many jobs to be done and this is a great community service opportunity. BBQ hamburgers will be provided. Please bring something to contribute for a potluck lunch, wheelbarrows, shovels, gloves, etc. If you have any questions call Fair Manager Lori Matlock at 684-2585. Call Lori for other community service opportunities.

Animal Exhibits and Public Health

Exhibitors, parents, leaders, and fair volunteers are encouraged to attend this workshop on August 2 at 6:30 p.m. in the Ag and Trade Center on the fairgrounds. Learn how to minimize the transmission of disease during animal shows to protect yourself and the public.

Outstanding Leader Nominations

It's time to recognize your 4-H leader for all the hard work they do during the year. Two leaders will be recognized—one with 1-2 years of service and one with 3 or more years of service. Leaders are recognized at the NE WA Fair and receive a special award at the 4-H Awards Banquet. Your leader can't win if you don't nominate them. Forms are enclosed. Return to the extension office by August 3.

Horse Program Meeting

All 4-H horse leaders are encouraged to attend the next program meeting on August 9 at 6:30 p.m. at the extension office.

Shooting Sports Training

There will be a Shooting Sports Training in Spokane County August 17-19 in the areas of archery, hunting, rifle, pistol, and shotgun. Questions may be directed to Gary Varrella at 477-2163. For an application <http://www.spokane-county.wsu.edu/4h/index.html>.

Educational Posters

Posters for the NE WA Fair are due no later than August 20 at 4 p.m. New this year—they are to be dropped off at WSU Stevens County Extension. Stevens County 4-H'ers are required to exhibit an educational poster at the fair if they have a 4-H exhibit. If you want posters can be laminated at the extension office for $5.
